Major General Alva R. Fitch
Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence
Department of the Army
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Alva:

Each month we receive from our Station Chiefs a general report of their activities, and the two most recent ones from [ ] brought to my mind some of the previous problems you and I had been jointly faced with in that area.

I hope you will be as pleased as I am to learn that my Station Chief reports that cooperation from the new personalities in the U. S. military command structure in [ ] and specifically in the Army G-2 and his deputy, has been of the finest and that they have sought coordination whenever and wherever appropriate. There appears to be every indication of greatly improved liaison across the boards looking toward effective resolution of some of the long-standing problems of intelligence coordination.

I tell you this simply for your personal information and I am hopeful that my people and yours will continue down this path, tripping lightly, hand in hand, sharing posies on the way.

With renewed assurances of my high consideration, I am, Sir, your most humble and obedient servant -- also, Faithfully yours, and heartiest congratulations on all the good things that are happening to you!

/s/ Pat

Mr. Knoche:

General Carter asked me to check with you and the DD/P to see if you "know of any reason why I can't send the attached."

MEMORANDUM FOR: General Carter

FE Division thinks your letter is first-rate and well worth sending. Mr. Knoche concurs but in his typical humorless fashion had a great deal of difficulty in tripping lightly through the penultimate paragraph.
